

There are 13 kinds of magnets available, each one different in its subject and size, on sale for € 3,00 each

The classic ones

Rectangular, measuring 5.4x7.8 cm

They portray the Sforza fortress by night, the map of Imola drawn by Leonardo da Vinci, the finishing stretch and the pit stops at the 'Enzo and Dino Ferrari' racetrack, Gramsci square at the beginning of the twentieth century with the eclectic market building and the entrance to the city on Via Emilia from the late nineteenth century, facing the demolished Bologna gate

The wide-angle views

Rectangular, measuring 3.6x11.4 cm

They are dedicated to the town seen from the keep of the Sforza fortress and to the 'Enzo and Dino Ferrari' racetrack

The molded magnet

Measuring a total of 5.9x9.5 cm

Aerial view of the Sforza fortress profiled around its circular ramparts

The magnetized bookmark

Vertical, measuring 11.8 x 5 cm

It portrays a motorcycle race at the 'Enzo and Dino Ferrari' racetrack; on the back there is a small additional illustration that, through the Blinkar application, allows you to view a film clip of Imola with bigger than real reality

The museums

Square shaped, measuring 6x7 cm

They are dedicated to some places of art in the town, such as a bedroom in the Tozzoni palace, the interior of the "Ebe Stignani" municipal theatre, the "Giuseppe Scarabelli Museum" and the ancient Saint Frances library, now the municipal Library
