

Seven A5 lined notebooks with a cover dedicated to views of the town on sale for € 3,00 each.

The color view of the 'Enzo and Dino Ferrari' racetrack, the main entrance to the Sforza fortress and the Franciscan library are those of present-day Imola.

Made from photographs and historical postcards of the town, the notebooks with the town hall seen from the portico of the “Riario Sersanti” palace, the Montanara gate and a portion of the demolished walls of the town, “Caduti per la Libertà” (Those who gave their lives for Freedom) square, taken from below the town hall clock, and finally Gramsci square with the ancient market.

WHERE TO FIND THEM

- at the tourist information office

Galleria del Centro Cittadino, via Emilia 135

opening hours Monday to Friday 9.00-12.30, Tuesday & Thursday also 14.30-17.30

- at museums ticket offices

Rocca Sforzesca, piazzale Giovanni dalle Bande Nere

Palazzo Tozzoni, via Garibaldi 18

Museo San Domenico, via Sacchi 4

Find out the opening hours on the Imola Musei website imolamusei.it

- at the public library

via Emilia 80

Find out the opening hours on the website bim.comune.imola.bo.it